Fifth Sunday of Easter

Words of Hope from Pastor Christina

Dear KOG disciples,

This Sunday we learn what it means how loving God first is how we tell the world through our Core Values of Easter. Which is that we are disciples of Christ. Christ who teaches us how to love.

Now the value of Easter teaches us through Lent: Love exemplified!

Listen to the words from Ilia Delio:

The Christian journey is by definition a Lenten journey. Following Jesus through the cross should not be a special effort six weeks of the year; rather, it is the path into God. It is a path of conversion, a realization that we are unfinished, insecure and a bit broken. 'Conversion' is based on the Greek word 'metanoia' which literally means 'change of mind' or 'change of heart'. What is this change of mind and heart? It is essentially a process of 'unlearning or rewiring our thoughts, attitudes, and actions, from self-centeredness to God-centeredness.

---Ilia Delio in "Return to God and God will Return to You"

In Christ,
Pastor Christina

Kids of God

New News!!

Our week was one of excitement and gratitude as we welcomed mothers, grandmothers, and friends to our Mother's Day Tea. The children were anxiously awaiting to spend time with these special people in their lives. The time together began with Chapel as Pastor Christina shared the importance of following one's heart, trusting in faith, and looking for the blessings in each day. A sincere and heartfelt THANK YOU to the King of Glory community for providing a beautiful luncheon and memorable day for all! The children continued their faith journey as well, hearing the promises of the Good Shepherd, as we are cared for and watched over in each step of our daily lives. Always know, this Ministry is a blessing to the children, families, teachers, and volunteers and continues to flourish.
