Worship and Music

Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost

> Today's gospel starts with disciples obsessing over who will be closest to Jesus, leading to Jesus teaching his followers about God's take on importance and power. Here Jesus makes it explicit that the reversal of values in God's community is a direct challenge to the values of the dominant culture, where wielding power over others is what makes you great. When we pray "your kingdom come" we are praying for an end to tyranny and oppression. We pray this gathered around the cross, a sign of great shame transformed to be the sign of great honor and service.

> Music Ministry

The choir will be singing Surely, He Has Borne Our Grievs by John Carter. Today's Special Music is taken directly from Isaiah 53, our first reading for today. We find reassurance in these words because we know Jesus bore our sins on the cross. We are called to serve others in this place as a response to this gift that we have been given.

Thank you, April Troglauer

~ Holy Communion

Everyone is welcomed at The Lord's Table. The ushers will direct you to the altar area. You will receive the bread (wafer) and move to the communion assistant serving the wine.

~ Servers Needed

Can you offer to read, usher, assist with communion, or greet at any of our services during the Month of October. If you want to serve, please be sure to put your name on the signup sheets in the narthex. Thank you so much.

We always need new worship servers. If you are willing to serve, contact the office and we will put you in touch with someone who can "show you the ropes."

Breakfast Will Be Served!

> Worship and Music and Fellowship Ministries

Please join us for a German Brunch after service on Sunday, October 31st. Come enjoy some fellowship as we celebrate the anniversary of the Reformation. Our breakfast will include traditional elements like meats and cheeses, sausage, and eggs, much like what you would see in Germany! And don't forget to wear red!

"Whenever the devil harasses you, seek the company of men or drink more, or joke and talk nonsense, or do some other merry thing."
Martin Luther

Caring Ministry

STEPHEN MINISTRY

When "Pull Yourself Together" Doesn't Work

You've heard it time and time again: "Pull yourself together. . . Cheer up. . . Tough it out. . . It's not that bad." Perhaps people have said it to you. Or perhaps you keep saying it to yourself. But it hasn't helped. You're still hurting. Things are coming apart. Here's the good news: You don't have to go through your struggles alone. Help is available. Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers who will walk with you, listen to you, and provide confidential, one-to-one care as you search through the pieces and find what is truly in your heart. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, and help you through a tough time and it's confidential. To find out more, talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: call Brenda Sheffer at 843-743-1350 or Pastor Hank Moody at 843-992-8425.

Opportunities to Serve

>The Altar Guild is looking for new members. No experience is needed, we can teach you everything you need to know! Our teams usually serves once a month. The more teams we have the less often each will serve. If you are interested or want to know more about this awesome opportunity reach out to Nan Murtha at 540-845-5809, jmj25816@comcast.net or speak with her after church.

~ Secondly, we are reorganizing our Welcome Ministry Team and we need a Leader for the team as well as folks who are willing to serve as team members. The primary role of this team is to develop a system to provide a welcoming environment for visitors and to follow up with them following their visit. This team will have the responsibility of "stimulating, encouraging and providing leadership for the congregation as we all strive to create an atmosphere that will allow us to reach out to others in the community with the Gospel and encourage all to develop a relationship with Christ's Church." Please consider and pray about these positions and if you are called to fill one of them, please contact Sue Dooley at 717-860-9501 or Sudo43@hotmail.com.

We Appreciate You!

> Have you ever thought about what the appearance of our property "speaks" to those who pass by on 11th Avenue? The "view" from the street is the first impression many folk have of this congregation. Thanks to the dedication of our Property Ministry team on Property Casual Thursdays and to the other volunteers who work around the property during the month. The grounds around the church look great ... and inviting! Great job!

Read and Pray

~ Christ in Our Home devotional books for October – December 2021 are available in the narthex. These "guides" are helpful resources for daily scripture readings, meditation, and prayer.

Office Xerox Printer

We apologize for the terrible condition of the printing of the worship guide and weekly herald last week and this week as well. We had our repairman here for a couple hours this week. He had to order a part and it will be installed on Monday afternoon. Hopefully that will fix the problem.
Thank you for your patience.

Kids of God Preschool

> New News

Fall craft projects, enjoying time with friends, helping others, and exploring new things were all a part of our week together. It truly is a blessing to see this Ministry in the lives of the children and families.

In the week ahead, we have a special gardening project planned. The children will spend time planting and helping to care for the outdoor environment. There are two planter boxes by the preschool entrance and one pot for filling.

Below is our wish list for this gardening project:

- Pansies
- Ornamental cabbage plants
- 1 bag potting soil

If you are interested in donating toward and/ or providing any items from this list, please let Kevin know or contact the preschool at 843-281-0069. Thank you for your continued support of Kids of God at King of Glory Lutheran Church.
