Worship and Music

Second Sunday after Epiphany

The Sundays after Epiphany continue to celebrate the revelation of God's glory to us as it was made known to the magi and to those on Jordan's banks at Jesus' baptism—today using wedding imagery. Our God rejoices over God's people as those being married rejoice over one another. By the power of the Spirit there are gifts galore for everyone. In Christ Jesus the best wine is saved for last. Taste and see.

Music Ministry

For the Special Music on Sunday, the choir will be singing Glory in the Lord by Joseph M. Martin. As we hear in today's second lesson, we are all blessed with gifts through the Holy Spirit. And the glory that comes from these gifts is for God, who provides for us and empowers us to work in this community of faith. This Special Music today is a beautiful reminder to praise God through and for the gifts provided! Thank you, April Troglauer

Holy Communion

Everyone is welcome to the Lords table for communion. Young children who have not received instruction in holy communion are invited to come forward to receive a blessing. The ushers will direct movement to and from the altar. If you are unable to come forward for any reason, alert an usher and the sacrament will be brought to you. The host will be placed into your hand via a wafer dispenser. To receive wine, or grape juice (found in the center of the tray) take one of the small cups from the tray as you pass. Gluten free wafers are available upon request at the table.

Worship Servers

Can you offer to read, usher, assist with communion, or greet at our services? Please be sure to put your name on the sign-up sheets in the narthex.

Pastor Christina's Installation

Dear All: I would like to cordially invite each and everyone of you to my installation as Pastor to King of Glory on Sunday February 6th at 3:00 p.m. Rev. Rick Carter, assistant to the bishop will be preaching and Rev. Jason Lee, Dean of the Epiphany Conference will be leading us.

KOG Nursery

The Nursery is reopened, and the families are so appreciative for the time to worship. The children are enjoying themselves and the adults are too! Several folks have offered their time and a volunteer schedule is being organized. We are looking for volunteers to staff the Nursery, in hopes to rotate the adults over time. Please consider signing up for this important ministry and know it is a true blessing to the children, their families, and the King of Glory community.

Please let Sue Dooley or Kevin Pope know if you can help at any time

Social Ministry

Our Advent bags were delivered to Helping Hands on Monday. It took three cars to haul them! A total of fifty-four bags were donated, each with twenty plus pounds of food items. Another generous offering to those less fortunate. Thanks to all who contributed.

Noisy Offering Are you saving your coins? Our Noisy Offering will be on the last Sunday of the month. Support our After School Ministry and Awesome Summer Ministry with your do nations.

Shepherd's Table Plans are underway for serving a warm meal to the hungry at the Shepherd's Table on January 28th. If you can provide a side dish or a case of bottled water, please call Sally Estes at 336-409-1248.

Help Our Homeless Teens. Join Social Ministry and Fellowship teams and quilters on Saturday, January 29th at 10:00 a.m. We will be making tie blankets for North Myrtle Beach homeless students. There are students with no permanent residence who may have to spend nights in cars or on the floor at friends or extended family. A fleece blanket can help them stay warm. These blankets need no skills, just a desire to help. Strips are cut into fleece and then tied together. Through a Thrivent grant we will provide the material, scissors, instruction, and pizza when we finish. Please sign-up in the narthex so we are sure to have enough supplies. This is a great family event — parents can cut, and children can tie.

Our quilting group is presently making baby blankets for a spring social ministry project. If you moved fabric south, planning on doing sewing, but found new southern interests, our quilters would love any flannel fabric you were going to use for pajamas. Bring it with you to Sunday worship and place it in the basket under the table used to collect your bags of blessings. Thank you, it will be put to good use.

New News

We had a wonderful week at school! The children have settled back into the daily routines and are enjoying new lessons and activities. This week, we heard the Bible story of Jonah and the Whale, as the children were reminded of prayers, trust, and God's grace for us all.

The more winter like temperatures certainly helped to guide other stories and crafts. We learned about penguins and how they care for their young, igloos and how they provide protection from the cold, new letters, numbers, songs and more. What a joy it is to hear and see the children fully engaged, enjoying friendships, and knowing they are cared for and loved each day!
